Spring, a time of birth and
new experiences,

Where we develop our best assets
and make the most of them..

Summer days to pass the time,

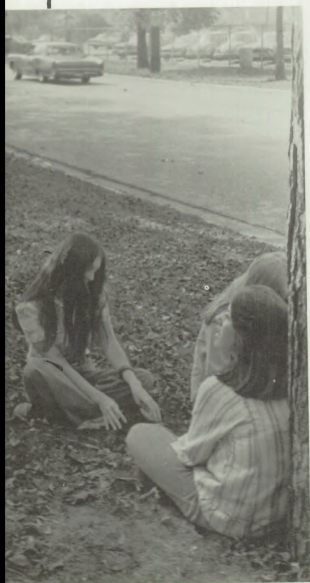

To build memories for the future...

Fall hours to enjoy the time we have left,

For life is far too short...

Winter months to keep warm
with people we love,

And make the most of each
day that passes...

SUMMER

Commencement "78"

The 1978 Commencement took place in Hammond Tech's auditorium on June 7th. Baccalaureate was held June 4th. Mr. Simpson, Ms. Tanner, and Mr. Fisher all spoke on behalf of the senior class, and their hard work through the four years spent in high school.

Education plays an important role in everyone's life and offers many rewards. Commencement and diplomas are symbolic awards that nourish the mind.

"Almost Anything Goes"

Last year the student councils from Hammond Gavit, Hammond High, and Hammond Tech attempted a fun time for all, called, "Almost Anything Goes."

It was originated on T.V. and the idea was picked up by Hammond Gavit's student council officers.

"Almost Anything Goes" took place in May of '78 on Hammond Gavit's football field, at 7:30 p.m.

FALL

Jesus Christ Superstar

The fall musical opera of Jesus Christ Superstar put on by Tech's drama department proved to be a success. The Optimists sponsored the production which was open to students from all the Hammond high schools (with addition to E. C. R. and Spohn Middle School.) Jesus Christ Superstar has outdone previous fall musicals in attendance (sold out crowds!), sets, costumes, makeup, dedication and hard, very hard work. Congratulations are in order for the cast, crew and all that helped improve Tech's image.

As the ending of our Senior year approaches, we try to look back to our past years at Tech for all the successes as well as the failures. Looking on good times as well as bad.

Our freshmen year was pretty rough. We really knew nothing about what was going on, but by our sophomore year it all became very plain.

Next thing you know we're juniors and are sponsoring the junior-senior prom, which by the way was a great success. Jo Ellen Thilmont was crowned Prom Queen and was escorted by Joe Sanchez. Prom King was Allan Kuntz.

Also during our junior year, Tom Manzo went to Kentucky on a survival mission. He survived, of course, and returned when the week was over.

Indiana Girls State called on two more of the class to attend a week of government education down state. Tammy Faught and Terri Banninger.

Suddenly our senior year approaches and we're ordering our announcements and gowns. To go further or to stop is the answer we're all looking for.

SENIORS REMEMBER WHEN . . . . .

Seniors remember when we tried so hard,
To be so great,
Time slipped by and did not wait . . .
Our years we planned ahead,
And now our high school days are almost dead . . .
But we had fun,
working, playing, relaxing, studying,
We'll always be, in our minds,
number one . . .

Chart Captures Year...

The Journalism Writing and Graphics classes offer a wide variety of things to do. The Journalism Graphics class deals with the Hammond Tech Chart. There are various duties involved with the yearbook. Pictures need to be taken, people identified, copy written and the whole thing layed out in the proper style. Hammond Tech is the only high school in the area that does a paste-up yearbook. A paste-up book means seeing the actual page as it will appear in the yearbook, all pictures and copy are pasted to the page. Staff positions include: editor-the person who is in charge of the yearbook, assistant editor, advertising editor, advertising manager, sports editor and photographers. There are many more positions of equal importance but because of space cannot be mentioned.

Cindy Ruiz (editor in chief).

Randy Bautista (sports editor).

Missy DeGroot (advertising manager).

Mary Knoerzer, James Scott, Missy Hanaway, Norma Maldonado, Carol Johnson, Danny Brandon, Linda Blue, Nancy Carlson (chart staff).

Photographers: Gerald Doughty, Barry McCormack, and (not pictured) John Doughty.

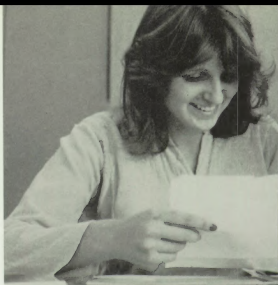

Dave Barlow, Dave Elam, Richard Brown (layout assistants).

Pam Lenzo (editor).

Martha Green (news editor).

Brenda Moore (advertising manager).
Vickie Thompson (layout assistant).

Shops

Students in our industrial shops demonstrate many various skills. The most popular shops are the ones mainly used in the Calumet region. Many students realize the evergrowing need to become trained in a skill. This is proved as students come from all over the Calumet region to attend Tech's shops. Students are taught to the best of the instructors' ability in new methods used in modern day industry. Do you see any work you might like to do? Look throught the next few pages and see. You might.

ADVERTISEMENTS

The Chart Staff of the high school would like to thank you for buying a place in our book. We know it doesn't matter what size of an ad you bought, it's the feelings and words that you have a place in the yearbook. Ads can be bought in full page, half page, or fourth page.

Many companies have been buying a place in the yearbook ever since 1923. So you can see a lot of companies have been taking a place in the yearbook for 55 years.

The companies take their time out to buy an ad in the yearbook. We know that you have done your best to help the yearbook out. So we send the companies who ever bought a place in the yearbook our thanks and appreciation.

We also thank our patrons who helped us out. Patrons- Leo Garcia, Hoosier Cartage, and The Carlson Family.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Being editor of the yearbook is not an easy task. You're faced with a great deal of responsibilities in trying to make a book everyone will enjoy.

I cannot take all the credit for the planning of the book; that had been done since the end of last year. For that I owe a great deal of thanks to Lori Henson since she put a number of hours into planning the yearbook. I did make some changes which I hoped were for the best.

This wasn't an easy year, starting out with a new advisor and only a few returning staff members, but we managed.

There are many people who worked on the book, a few more than others and I thank all those people.

What is a yearbook without photographers, is a question I find myself asking. Well, for that answer all I have to say is thanks to Harry and Tom of Bodie's, for without them, it would be hard to process a yearbook. We also cannot forget the great work of our own photographers, Barry McCormack, John Doughty, and Gerald Doughty, who produced a number of great photographs.

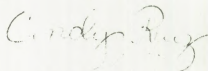

Many of the pages have fascinating drawings which are undoubtedly good. Those pages could not have been possible without the creativity of a couple of great students, Vidal Sendejas and Mike Sanchez. I thank them both.

I thank Mrs. Schroeder for putting up with me and for her help in getting the book together. It couldn't have been easy for her, trying to help us get things organized, while still trying to figure out how we did different things, but she managed.

Again I thank the 1979 Chart Staff, for without them it would have been impossible to produce this yearbook.

I also thank the whole student body for without them there would be no Tech and no yearbook.

I hope you enjoy your yearbook and it will be something you can always look back on and remember how it was. THANKS!

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995 (Department of Health 1996).

There is a growing emphasis on the need to improve the efficiency of the public sector, and to ensure that the public sector is able to deliver the services that are required by the public. This has led to a number of initiatives, including the introduction of competition, the restructuring of public sector organisations, and the introduction of performance measures. The aim of these initiatives is to ensure that the public sector is able to deliver the services that are required by the public, in a cost-effective and efficient manner.

One of the key initiatives in the public sector is the introduction of competition. This has led to a number of public sector organisations being privatised, and to a number of public sector organisations being required to compete for contracts. This has led to a number of public sector organisations being required to improve their efficiency, and to reduce their costs.

Another key initiative is the restructuring of public sector organisations. This has led to a number of public sector organisations being merged, and to a number of public sector organisations being reorganised. This has led to a number of public sector organisations being able to deliver the services that are required by the public, in a more efficient manner.

A third key initiative is the introduction of performance measures. This has led to a number of public sector organisations being required to measure their performance, and to report on their performance. This has led to a number of public sector organisations being able to improve their performance, and to deliver the services that are required by the public, in a more efficient manner.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000). The number of people aged 65 and over is projected to increase to 15.5 million by 2020, and the number of people aged 75 and over to 8.5 million (Office for National Statistics 2000). The increase in the number of people aged 65 and over is expected to be due to a combination of factors, including a decline in the birth rate, a decline in the death rate, and a decline in the rate of emigration (Office for National Statistics 2000).

The increase in the number of people aged 65 and over is expected to have a significant impact on the UK's health and social care system. The number of people aged 65 and over who are in need of health and social care services is expected to increase from 1.5 million in 1990 to 2.5 million in 2020 (Office for National Statistics 2000). This increase is expected to be due to a combination of factors, including a decline in the birth rate, a decline in the death rate, and a decline in the rate of emigration (Office for National Statistics 2000).
